 Post

The TV Column

HIGHLIGHTS

- In the morning and afternoon, Cabinet confirmation hearings on WETA.
- "Who Killed Martin Luther King?" on WTTG.
- "Perry Mason: The Case of the Fatal Fashion" on WRC.
- And Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush" on WETA.
- Plus a 1989 interview with the late Audrey Hepburn on "20/20" on WJLA.

Cabinet Confirmation Hearing

Live coverage of the confirmation hearing for Attorney General-designate Zoe Baird (Channel 26, approx. 10 a.m.; resuming approx. 2 p.m.).

Public Broadcasting

The Gold Rush (1925). Charlie Chaplin devours an old shoe and performs the classic bread roll dance. 90 minutes (Channel 26 at 9).

Primetime Movies

Perry Mason: The Case of the Fatal Fashion (1991) (CC) (R). A fashion magazine editor is murdered before she can expose a corrupt colleague. Two hours (Channel 4 at 8).

Delta Force 2 (1990). Chuck Norris leads his brigade into Latin America to terminate an elusive drug lord. Two hours (Channel 20 at 8).

Agatha (1979). A fictional account of Agatha Christie's mysterious 11-day disappearance in 1926. Two hours (Channel 50 at 8).

Special

Who Killed Martin Luther King? (CC). Larry Fishburne hosts this exploration into questions about the murder of the civil rights leader; including interviews with Jesse Jackson and Walter Fauntroy. One hour (Channel 5 at 9).

Series

America's Most Wanted (CC). A prospective car buyer is wanted in the murder of a Virginia man (Channel 5 at 8).

Family Matters (CC). Laura pulls an all-nighter (Channel 7 at 8).

Major Dad (CC) and the General enroll in the same college course (Channel 9, 8:30).

Step by Step (CC). Frank hires a female construction worker who would like to build a relationship with him (Channel 7 at 9).

Designing Women (CC). Bernice thinks the women are going to put her to sleep (Channel 9 at 9).

20/20 (CC). A rebroadcast of a 1989 interview with Audrey Hepburn, and a profile of the "Love Bandit," who leaves his victims heartbroken and penniless (Channel 7 at 10).

Late Night

The Arsenio Hall Show (CC). With Tom Cruise from the set of "The Firm," Denis Leary and rapper Dr. Dre (Channel 9, 11:30).

—John Maynard

John Carmody is away. His column will resume next month.